Terps Face GW & Richmond This Week To Close Out The Regular Season

With the regular season winding down, the Maryland baseball team has just four games remaining before the ACC Tournament. The Terrapins (15-34, 4-19 ACC) host George Washington Wednesday and Richmond Thursday to close out the 2001 home schedule. Following Thursday's game, the Terps hit I-95 and head South to play the final two games of the series with the Spiders in Richmond on Friday and Saturday. From Richmond, the Terrapins are scheduled to travel to Fort Mill, S.C. to prepare for the 2001 ACC Tournament, which begins on May 15. The Terrapins will enter the tournament as the No. 9 seed and could face either North Carolina or NC State in the opening round. The Terps have defeated the Tar Heels twice already this season and won once at NC State.

On Deck: George Washington

For the second time this season, Maryland faces George Washington on the baseball diamond Wednesday evening at Shipley Field. The Colonials enter with a record of 34-19 after Tuesday's 9-4 win over Towson.

As a team, the Colonials are batting .322 with seven regulars hitting over .300. The team's leading hitter, Matt Krimmel, brings a .370 average into Wednesday's contest. GW has three players with 40 or more RBIs including Dan Rouhier (55), Mike Bassett (54) and Krimmel (40).

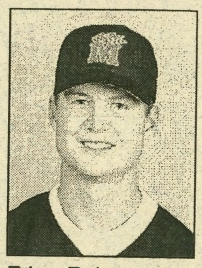
On the mound, the GW pitching staff has totaled an impressive team ERA of 3.85. Jason Baker has been the team's ace, going 6-4 with a 2.93 ERA and 60 strikeouts. He leads the team with five complete games and 76.2 innings pitched.

The Series With The Colonials

With Maryland's 11-9 victory over GW on March 28, the Terrapins lead the all-time series 40-26-4.

The Last Time Vs. GW

Senior Brian Patenaude (Marietta, Ga.) went 2-for-5 with four runs batted in and junior center fielder Matt Swope (New Carrollton, Md.) and senior third baseman Steve Oursler (Clinton, Md.) each knocked in three runs as Maryland defeated George Washington, 11-9, at Barcroft Park in Arlington, Va. Swope led off the game in style, going deep over the left-center fence. With the homer, it marked the third time this season that Swope has led off a game with a homerun.



Brian Patenaude

The Colonials would tie the game in the second when second baseman Chris Berry went deep to left.

In the third, Maryland would once again take the lead on the first of Patenaude's four RBIs on the day. After freshman Anthony Buffone (Manalapan, N.J.) singled to start the inning, Patenaude would bring him around to score with a single to left field, making it 2-1 Maryland.

GW scored two runs in the bottom half of the third to regain the lead, 3-2. The score would stay that way until seventh when the Terrapins' bats began to warm up.

The Terps would plate nine runs in the seventh and eighth. In the seventh, Maryland scored five times, including a two-RBI single by Swope and a key two-out, three-run single off the bat of Oursler.

In the eighth, Buffone delivered a run-scoring single to center and Patenaude launched a three-run homer over the left field fence to give the Terrapins' a commanding 11-3 advantage. The homerun for Patenaude was the first of the season for the Georgia native.

GW would score six times over the final two inning to close out the scoring at 11-9.

Sophomore pitcher Todd Ainsworth (Hershey, Pa.) won his first game in two years for the Terps by pitching 1.1 innings in relief of starter Matt Basinger (Connellsville, Pa.). Ainsworth missed most of the 2000 season with Tommy John surgery on his right elbow and last won on May 5, 1999 against Richmond.

Diamond Notes: Richmond

The Spiders are 24-25 after 49 games this season and 7-13 in the CAA. Richmond has faired much better at home this season with a 14-6 mark compared to an 8-16 record on the road.

Richmond is batting just .267 as a team. Bryan Pritz leads the club with a .355 average while Vito Chiaravalloti is first on the squad in home runs (17) and RBIs (55).

The Spiders' pitching staff has totaled a 4.30 ERA. Three hurlers are tied with six wins to lead the team. Brian Lane (6-1, 2.33), Tim Stauffer (6.5, 3.68) and Thomas Martin (6-5, 3.70) have led a pitching staff that has totaled 364 strikeouts.

Updating The Record Books

Chuck Easter (Baltimore, Md.), Steve Oursler and Brian Patenaude have been quickly moving up the career hitting charts for the Terrapins. Patenaude is ranked in nine hitting categories including at-bats (640, 4th), runs (141, 4th), hits (201, 4th), doubles (47, 1st), extra-base hits (62, 8th), walks (91, 3rd), total bases (289, 6th), sacrifice hits (17, 4th) and hit by pitch (25, 2nd). Patenaude became just the fourth Maryland player ever to record 200 hits over the weekend against Florida State.

Easter will also leave his name on several of the Top 10 career charts. The Baltimore native is second in doubles (46), tied for second in being hit by a pitch (25) and fourth in walks (90).

Oursler has played just two seasons in College Park after transferring from St. Mary's. Oursler has 35 doubles as a Terrapin, ninth-best in school history. His .341 batting average also places him 10th on the all-time career chart.

Wear It!

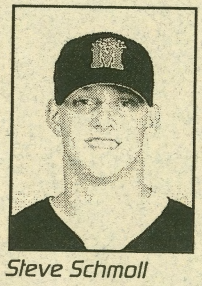
If there is one thing about Chuck Easter, he will always take one for the team. The Baltimore native has been plunked 15 times this season, the second-highest total ever in one season. Easter trails Chris Cannan who was nailed 21 times during the 1994 season.

Easter has also moved quickly up the career charts also. The 25 times he has been hit over his years in College Park rank him second on the all-time list.

Senior outfielder Brian Patenaude has been struck seven times this season to move into a second-place tie with Easter on the career list with 25. Cannan is the all-time leader after getting nailed by 36 pitches over his career.

Going The Distance

Steve Schmoll (Rockville, Md.) turned in the best pitching performance of his brief career against Wake Forest on April 28. The second-year hurler tossed his first complete game to down the Deacs, 9-4. Schmoll allowed just one earned run and fanned five to upset No. 21 Wake. The victory was the first for the Terrapins over a ranked team this season.



Steve Schmoll

Earlier in the season, Schmoll set a career-high with 10 strikeouts vs. Georgetown.

Overall, he leads the pitching staff with 53 strikeouts. Schmoll has pitched in 70.1 innings this season, second-best on the team.

The ACC Tourney Returns To Charlotte

The 2001 ACC Baseball Tournament returns to Charlotte and Knights Stadium May 15-20. The five-day tournament is styled after the College World Series and follows a double-elimination format. For ticket information, contact the Charlotte Knights ticket office at 704-36-HOMER.

Now Pitching For The Terps...

Mike Dallmeyer (Enola, Pa.) has had a busy season for the Terps. The Pennsylvania native has seen action both as a starter and a reliever in 23 games, the most appearances on the club.

The 23 appearances also have Dallmeyer
